Catholic Life and Faith June 2016

Stewards of God's Mercy
by Leisa Anslinger

Stewardship is a very spiritual and yet extremely practical way of life. Growing as a steward requires us to make decisions about the way we use our time and resources. As stewards, our daily actions reflect the abundant blessings which we have been given by God. Yet the temptation to hold back our time or talent or to hold onto our worldly possessions is great. That is what the bishops challenge us to recognize in their pastoral letter. Without the recognition that "Jesus' call is urgent," our delay is nothing more than simply going about the business of living. With this recognition, and our response to it, however, life takes on deeper meaning, we find purpose in our caring and sharing. Faith meets life. How will you answer Jesus' urgent call today?
