Although Masses are celebrated and opened to the parishioners, please remember that social distancing is still in order. You need to have a mask on; seating is six (6) feet apart. When lining up for communion, keeping the 6 feet distancing, please keep your mask on, receive the host in your hand (saying Amen), and move to the side. Remove your mask and consume the host then proceed back to your seat.

If you feel sick, are coughing, have a fever, please stay home. Live Masses can be seen on FIOS-48, Spectrum-97 or Optinum-30 in different languages on Sundays or any day of the week.
